

Supply Chain Management Advisory Board meeting

Supply Chain Management Advisory Board met on Monday, October 5 to on campus to provide leadership to the university's undergraduate program. Lead by Craig Reed, Senior Vice President of Supply Chain Management at Eaton Company, the board members spent a successful session providing ideas and recommendations to support the strategic direction of the program. These companies have provided such things as jobs, internships, financial support, and guest speakers.

Board members are Wesley Hutcherson, Director of Strategic Sourcing at Union Pacific Railroad, Woody Keown, Director of Purchasing at Proctor & Gamble, Jason Himmer, Senior Director of Logistic's at Sam's Club, Paul Brown, Director and Professor of SCM at CAU, Mike Miller, General Manager and VP of Supply Chain at Norfolk Southern, Jana Kennedy, Director of Global Sourcing at Monsanto, Audrey Goins-Birchi, Senior Manager of Planning and Coordination at Chevron, Craig Reed, Senior Vice President of Supply Chain Management at Eaton Company, MG Ekon, Director of Finance and Supply Chain Management at Shell Oil, Albert Keal, Division Manager of Procurement at Harley Davidson, Cathy Martin, Deputy Chief Procurement Officer of City of Atlanta and Ed Davis, CAU Dean of School of Business.

Board members not present were Mike Robinson, Program Director, Global Supplier Diversity at IBM, Regina Edwards, Director of Supply Chain Compliance at MWV, and Gary Bailey, VP of SCM at Lockheed

More Pictures